

MRS. GEORGE E. FREY.

Mrs. George E. Frey (formerly Mrs. Texas Waller), is one of Baltimore's most charming ladies. Born in Haverstraw, N. Y., and educated in the same State, Mrs. Frey is one of the descendants of the old Jarvis family, the first settlers of Massachusetts and New York. They intermarried with the Shinocok tribe of Indians. She is a member of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, and is also identified with many charitable organizations and an officer of rank in the Masonic Fraternity. She has entertained some of the most notable ladies in the land. It was at the beautiful home of Mrs. Frey, 1018 Linden avenue, that Mrs. Booker T. Washington was entertained on her last visit to this city. For many years Mrs. Frey was instructor in the art of dress cutting, fitting and designing. Mrs. Frey has two charming daughters—both married—one living in Germantown, Pa., the wife of the eminent Dr. R. W. Bailey; the other living in Boston, the wife of James A. Walton, a business man; and one son, Alexander Texas Waller, who is yet a minor. Her present husband, Mr. Frey, is one of Baltimore's leading citizens, a prominent Mason (a thirty-third, active degree, second highest officer in the organization) and one of the city's most popular caterers.
