

MR. E. B. TAYLOR.

While Mr. Taylor's business as caterer will of necessity be hard hit by the war, he is as busy as ever, serving in the following capacities, viz.: By appointment of the President one of Maryland's Four-minute Men; by commission of the Governor, a member of the original twenty-five colored members of the Council of Defence; by appointment of the Mayor, manager of the House of Reformation and Instruction for Colored Boys, to represent the city. He is also head of the Red Cross for the State, a member of the War Savings Committee for Baltimore City, a member of the Recreation Committee of the Soldiers' Committee on Camp Activities, and one of the committee of three of the League for National Defence, having charge of the Draftees' Drills, fitting out men for non-commissioned posts when they go to camp. These are all we remember now, except the chairmanship of the executive committee of the Alumni of the Colored High School.
