

GEORGE CARTER, U.S.N.

The above photograph is that of Mr. George Carter of Annapolis, Md. Mr. Carter has been in the service of the U. S. Navy for the past twenty-three years. He is now in what is known as the Second-Year Fleet Navy Reserve Forces. Mr. Carter was born in the city of Baltimore forty years ago; he attended the old Holliday Street school. For the past twenty-one years he has made his home in Annapolis. He married Miss Elizabeth Chase, daughter of the late Solomon and Mrs. May Chase, old residents of Annapolis before the Civil War. Mr. and Mrs. Carter celebrated their twentieth anniversary September 10, 1919, the occasion being one of the most celebrated that ever graced the Maryland soil. Mr. Carter has traveled extensively to all parts of the world, and was on the first ship, the U.S. Wadsworth, that represented the entrance of the United States in the World War; his ship having sunk the second German submarine. Mr. Carter is a highly respected citizen of Annapolis. He is a member of the Masons and the American Legion. He has a beautiful home on Washington Street.

---

J. FRANCIS HOLLAND

One of Baltimore's Public School Teachers has the honor of being a relative of the great negro inventor, Benjamin Banneker. He is a musician of reputation and choir director of St. Francis Xavier Church. He has acquired much property in the county and city. He is an undemonstrative contributor but personally gives to the poor and needy.