Biography of the Life of Rev. Reuben Hanson Armstrong, D.D.

Rev. Reuben Hanson Armstrong, D.D., was born Drumore township, Lancaster County, Pa., November 28, 1854. Educated in the public schools and Lincoln University, Chester Co., Pa., graduating from the Collegiate Department in 1877 and from the Seminary in 1880. He has served in the following fields: Lynchburg, Va., 1880-1881, acting at the same time as principal of the Graded School of Liberty, Va. Louisburg, N. C., 1881-1885, principal of parochial and public schools during the same period. Wilmington, N. C., 1885-1886, teacher also of the parochial schools. Harrisburg, Pa., October 1886 to October 1898, pastor of Capitol Street Presbyterian Church and recorder of Deeds for one year during this period. Baltimore, Md., pastor of Madison Street Presbyterian Church October 1898 to August 1904; November 1904 to November 1906, assistant to Rev. Matthew Anderson, D.D., of Berean Presbyterian Church, in the same period gathering together a mission at Germantown, Pa., 1906 to 1920. Started supply first of the Peoples' Mission and Pastor of Faith Presbyterian Church from the organization of the Mission into a Church October 1, 1914. The members and friends of Faith Presbyterian Church have been faithful in securing a lot worth $4,000.00 and will complete paying for it before the end of this fiscal year. They then intend to build a church which the present pastor hopes may be the climax of his service as a minister of the Gospel. This cut and brief biography appear in this Business Directory at the request of the author. Out of his grateful remembrance of the fact that during the pastorate at Madison Street Church he was led to Christ and united with the Church.
