

DANIEL MURRAY

Assistant Librarian of Congressional Library. It is through the courtesy of Mr. Murray that the Colored Directory of Baltimore, Washington, Wilmington and Annapolis is bound and placed on record each year in the Library of Congress.

DWIGHT O. W. HOLMES

Dean Dwight O. W. Holmes, of the School of Education of Howard University, Washington, D. C., was for a period of fifteen years a member of the faculty of the Colored High School of Baltimore, Md. In April, 1917, he left Baltimore and accepted a position in Miner Normal School, of Washington, D. C., as instructor in Psychology and Education. Two years later he went to Howard University and in November, 1920, he was appointed to the position which he now holds.

RALPH VICTOR COOK

Mr. Ralph Victor Cook is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cook, who were among the earliest residents of Washington, D. C.

Mr. Cook is a graduate of M St. High School, Washington, D. C. He received his M. E. degree at Cornell University, later taking postgraduate work at Columbia. He is now head of the Technical and Commercial Department at the Colored High School. Mr. Cook is interested in architectural work and has made many successful plans.