

WM. RUTHERFORD BOYKIN

It is with much pleasure that I congratulate Dr. Wm. Rutherford Boykin for the unbounded success with which he has met since locating in this city (Baltimore). The good work he is doing can best be told by his patrons. As far as as I have learned the concensus of opinion of the general public is in warm fellowship with the great work he is doing. I have heard nothing but favorable comments concerning him, which is a good test of his future success.

NELSON TUNSTALL, Baritone

A singer that everybody knows and who has proved his worth in Musical Comedy and the Concert Stage.

Traveled two years over the large cities of the States, with Cole and Johnson, in the "Red Moon"; later was engaged to go to London, Eng., with the New York Syncopated Orchestra with Will Marion Cook, director. Mr. Tunstall can be engaged at short notice for Churches, Lodges and Clubs as entertainer.

HARRY F. BROWN

Dr. Harry F. Brown graduated from Howard Medical College in 1906. Has been practicing medicine in Baltimore for 14 years. Superintendent of Provident Hospital at present and has held this position for five years. There is no salary attached to this position. Medical Examiner of Men's and Women's Department of Elks, Medical Examiner of Arch Social, Physician to Baptist Orphans' Home; member of S. W. Starks Lodge, No. 39, K. of P.