

EUGENE BROOKS

Mr. Eugene Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brooks, was born in Washington, D. C., 1849. He is the president of the Oldest Inhabitants' Association. He married Miss O. Everett in the year 1873. He is the father of four children: Norman E. and Everett A. Brooks, of the District of Columbia; Mrs. Musette B. Gregory, in Newark, N. J., and Mrs. Oceana B. Marshall, in Saratoga, N. Y. Mr. Brooks has been employed in the United States Supreme Court for forty years and is one of the most highly respected citizens of Washington.

W. NORMAN BISHOP

Secretary, Delta Lambda Chapter, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Baltimore, Md.

HENRY THOMAS

There is no man better known in the northwestern section of Baltimore than Mr. Henry Thomas, who has for a number of years resided at 1109 Druid Hill Avenue. He has had the honor of assisting a number of young men who are now prominent in the business and professional world. He is the father of Mrs. John Murphy, Jr., Mr. L. Lloyd Thomas, Miss Juliette Thomas, probation officer of this city; Mr. Geo. L. Thomas, assistant pharmacist, and Mrs. E. Verry Stokes. He is a member of the executive committee for Colored Crippled Children.

W. NORMAN BISHOP