The Coal Mining Industry and various enterprises growing out of the production of coal offer a most profitable field for development. Many millionaires have made their money in COAL.

As a bit of history, not generally known, a few colored men have the key to this industry. These men have made money in the coal mining business, and they are now devoting their energies to developing a "BIG BUSINESS" in which they can use their unusual knowledge and experience in making this industry a positive and powerful factor in our financial and industrial advancement, and incidentally in which more money can be made for themselves and for their associates.

An Investment in Coal is SAFE and PROFITABLE.
