

J. LOGAN JENKINS

Mr. Jenkins, a prominent caterer of Baltimore, was born at Salisbury, N. C., and was educated at Biddle University. Later he was employed by the Chesapeake Steamboat Co. as steward, after which he entered the catering business in 1914.

He is a thirty-third degree Mason Pythian, and is a popular community and church worker. He has served as a member of the grand jury and of the Council of Defense of the late war.

Mr. Jenkins is the sole manufacturer of Velvet Brand Mayonnaise, Tartar Sauce and Fruit Salad Dressing.

LAWYER LEWIS S. FLAGG

Lawyer Lewis S. Flagg, son of Rev. Lewis S. Flagg, and one of the most prosperous young lawyers of Baltimore.

WM. T. ANDREWS

Editor of The Herald Commonwealth

For 2½ years he ran the The Daily Herald. State Agent for the Bankers Fire Insurance Co., of Durham North Carolina. Practised Law for 20 years in South Carolina. Mr. Andrews, is a loyal Race Man and he has always been an Actor in Support of everything that pertains to the Welfare of his people.

