

EMMET J. SCOTT

Emmet Scott, secretary-treasurer of Howard University and formerly private secretary to the late Booker T. Washington. He was assistant secretary to the Secretary of War during the World War, and rendered high service to his country and to his race.

Dr. HARRY F. BROWN

Superintendent Provident Hospital.

ROBERT H. TERRELL

Robert H. Terrell, judge of the Municipal Court in Washington, D. C., and the only colored officeholder who did not lose his position under President Wilson.

W. ASHBIE HAWKINS

W. Ashbie Hawkins, of the law firm of Hawkins & McMechen, one of the leading lawyers of the city and head of the Knights of Pythias, Eastern and Western Hemispheres. Mr. Hawkins is a bold, fearless speaker, and won country-wide notice through his running as a candidate for the United States Senate on an independent ticket several years ago.