

MISS MOUNTAIN

Directress of the Sharp Street Community House, whose home town is Cleveland. She has made quite a success in her work since coming here, actively engaged in social and civic welfare work.

To Leave Hospital

Dr. Harry F. Brown, for eight years superintendent of Provident Hospital, tendered his resignation to the Board of Directors to take effect on September first.

E. B. TAYLOR

Mr. Taylor, after voluntarily turning over to the receivers of E. B. Taylor & Jenkins, Bankers, all his personal assets, including home and other property, stock, bonds and about $5,000 in cash on deposit in his own bank and with others, has been devoting his attention to rehabilitating himself. As a result, his catering business, including the Century Roof, the biggest cabaret in the world, has almost doubled. This article is a tribute from the editor to a man with grit, who refuses to acknowledge he is down—and will never be out.
