

PROMINENT BALTIMORE EDUCATORS

MILES WASHINGTON CONNOR
Principal of Training School.

Miles Washington Connor, A.B., Virginia Union University, A.M., Howard University, A.M., Columbia University. Formerly Head of the Department of Education, State Normal School, Petersburg, Va., and more recently Head of Department of Education and Director of Training at Virginia Union University, Richmond, Va.

Mr. Connor has been an ardent worker in the educational and religious movements in Virginia, holding offices in the Virginia State Teachers' Association, the Virginia Baptist State Sunday School, the Richmond Teachers' Association and the Negro Organization Society.

REV. ALBERT J. MITCHELL.
Field Secretary of Morgan College.

A graduate of Gammon Theological Seminary and a member of the Washington Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church. During the eighteen years as a member of this conference, Rev. Mitchell has been pastor of the following places: Marleys, Va.; Bedford City, Sykesville, Ames Memorial, Baltimore; Mt. Zion, Washington and Annapolis. In 1925, Rev. Mitchell was appointed Field Secretary of Morgan College, in which position he has been doing creditable work.

JNO. W. HAYWOOD, A.M., S.T.D.

Dean of the college at Morgan College. Formerly dean at Wiley College, Marshall, Texas. Later Associate Executive Secretary of the New Orleans Centenary Area of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

CARRINGTON LEWIS DAVIS

Carrington Lewis Davis, an outstanding scholar both during and after his college career, has been for the past 10 years Vice-Principal of the Douglass High School of Baltimore. Mr. Davis made the highest honors in his graduating class from Morgan College and at Harvard, where he received his Master's degree, was the only colored man up to this time elected a member of the Harvard Classical Club.

