

HARRY W. NICE

Governor of Maryland

Harry W. Nice is the fifty-sixth Governor of Maryland, and but the third Republican to be elected in that State since the birth of the Republican Party.

He was born in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, on December 5th, 1877, and is the son of the late Reverend Henry Nice, a Methodist Minister, and Drucilla Arnold Nice. His father, whose ancestors came to America with William Penn, and settled in the State of Pennsylvania, began his ministerial life at Snow Hill, Maryland, in the year 1857. His mother, Drucilla Arnold Nice, was the daughter of William A. Arnold, of Virginia.

Educated in Public Schools of Baltimore City, Baltimore City College, Dickinson College (Carlisle, Pennsylvania), University of Maryland.

Has received honorary degrees of Doctor of Laws—University of Maryland, St. John's College (Maryland), Washington College (Maryland), Dickinson College (Pennsylvania).

Married June 8, 1905, to Edna Viola Amos, of Baltimore City. Two sons, one deceased and one living, Harry W. Nice, Jr. Offices Held: Member of the Baltimore City Council, Secretary of the Mayor of Baltimore, Supervisor of Elections, Judge of the Appeal Tax Court, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney for the City of Baltimore, Prosecuting Attorney for the City of Baltimore, Governor of Maryland.

HARRY W. NICE

HOWARD W. JACKSON

Mayor of Baltimore

Born August 4, 1877, near Stemmers Run, Maryland.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Jackson.

In 1885 his parents moved to Havre de Grace, Maryland, where he was educated.

He came to Baltimore as an employee of the well-known Baltimore optical concern, F. W. McAllister & Company, where he remained for many years. He won the place of secretary of the McAllister Company through his outstanding business ability.

Mr. Jackson married Miss Ella M. Galloway, of Havre de Grace, on September 14, 1898.

In 1907 he was elected to the City Council of Baltimore and in 1909 he was elected Register of Wills of the City of Baltimore, succeeding himself to that office in 1915 and again in 1921, always with increased majorities that proved his extreme personal popularity as well as paying tribute to his efficiency in public office.

MAYOR HOWARD W. JACKSON

In 1910 Mr. Jackson had become a partner in the insurance agency conducted by Harry L. Riall, and this