

Mr. Wilson is Registrar, Director of Publicity and Editor of Publications at Morgan College. He was educated at Morgan College and Columbia University. He was a Sergeant-Company Clerk in the U. S. Army during the World War. He is the Executive Secretary of the Maryland Commission on Scholarships for Negroes, Secretary of the Colored Voters' League of Maryland, Corresponding Secretary of the Maryland Grand Jurors' Association, and holds memberships in several educational associations.

In addition to the above duties, Mr. Wilson finds much of his time taken up with activities in the following organizations in which he holds membership: Walter Green Post, American Legion; American Association of Collegiate Registrars; Omega Psi Phi Fraternity; Sigma Pi Phi (Gamma House); Pi Lambda Psi (Scholastic Honorary Society); the M. E. Church, and various committees of an educational nature.

EDWARD N. WILSON

Mr. Wilson was married in 1922 to Miss Alice M. Waring, public school teacher of Baltimore. Two children have come from this union: Frances Elizabeth and Edward, Jr.

Emma Holland Shipley was born March 1, 1848, at the Glennel Farms in Howard County, Maryland. Her parents were William and Caroline Holland.

In November, 1869, she was wedded to Moses Shipley, also of Howard County, and remained his beloved wife until his death forty years later in August, 1909.

Born to them during these years of Holy wedlock, were six children; William, Charles, Carrie, Holland, Emma, and Lee, all of whom are living. There are seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Shipley's son, Charles, has been successful in the catering business in Baltimore for thirty years.

Mrs. Shipley has been a life-long member of St. Francis Xavier's Roman Catholic Church, and at present lives with her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Gearing, at 1406 Madison Ave.
