

MILES W. CONNOR
President, Coppin Teachers College

Born in Norfolk County, near Portsmouth, Va. Attended a rural elementary school at Churchland, Va. Received a high school diploma from Norfolk Mission College, Norfolk, Va.; A.B. from Virginia Union University, Richmond, Va.; A. M. from Howard University; A.M. from Columbia University; Ph.D. from New York University; D.Ped. (honorary) Virginia Union University.

Held the following positions:

Instructor in History and Math., Selma University, Selma, Ala.; Asst. Principal, Corey Academy at Portsmouth, Va.; Head of Dept. of Education, Virginia State College; Head of Dept. of Education and Prof. of Philosophy, Virginia Union University, Richmond, Va.; Instructor, Summer School, Tuskegee Inst.

Is a member of the Board of Trustees of Virginia Union University; the Board of Trustees of the American Teachers Association; the Metropolitan Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A.; the Board of Managers of the Druid Hill Branch Y. M. C. A.; the District Committee of the Baltimore Area of Boy Scouts; the Executive Committee of the Association for the Handicapped.

Is Asst. Dean of the National Sunday School Congress; President of the Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Convention of Maryland; Superintendent of Sharon Baptist Church School; a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.