

EXEMPTION—

- to the value of one hundred dollars, to be ascertained by three disinterested appraisers, to be summoned and sworn by the officer at the time of levying the execution, and the appraisal signed by the appraisers, to be returned with the writ, 7 2
- If any property of any defendant, whether real or personal, cannot be divided so as to set apart a portion of it of the value of one hundred dollars, without loss and injury to all parties concerned, then the whole to be sold, and the defendant whose property is so sold, shall have one hundred dollars of the proceeds in money, and whether the property can be divided without loss to be determined by the appraisers; this section only to apply to cases where a single parcel of land or single article of personal property is levied on, and in all such cases the officer not to sell unless the property offered shall bring more than one hundred dollars, 7 3
- All wearing apparel, books, and the tools of mechanics exempt from execution, in addition to the property hereinbefore exempted, but this not to apply to any books or tools kept for sale, 7 4
- The preceding sections relating to exemptions not to impair the lien of any vendor for the purchase money of land, nor of any mortgage, nor of any mechanic or other person, for any debt contracted for or in aid of the erection of any building; nor from any levy thereon for taxes, 7 5
- The exemption herein not to apply to any execution on a judgment ren-