

CHAP. 57.

CHAPTER 56.

Passed June 18, 1861. AN ACT to amend article twenty of the Code of Public Local Laws, by repealing the ninety-first section thereof, relating to Jurors in Talbot county, and substituting a new section therefor.

Repealed. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the ninety-first section of article twenty of the Code of Public Local Laws be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following section substituted therefor:

Per diem. SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That each juror summoned on the regular panel of jurors to the Circuit court of Talbot county, shall be entitled to receive for each day he shall attend as juror, the sum of one dollar and fifty cents, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile, for every mile he shall have necessarily travelled from his residence to the county town; but such mileage shall not be allowed on the return trip to his residence.

In force. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 57.

Passed June 21, 1861. AN ACT to add new sections to the Local Laws of Worcester county under the head of Oysters.

Not lawful to catch oysters. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person to catch or take away oysters from the waters of Synnapuxent Bay in Worcester county, between the last day of April and the first day of September, in any year, nor shall any oysters be taken from any part of said Bay during that time to plant in any other part of the waters thereof; nor shall it be lawful at any time to use rakes or dredges in taking or catching oysters in said Bay.

Written permit. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That before it shall be lawful for any one to catch or take oysters from said Bay, they shall first obtain a written permit from all the acting Justices of the Peace in District number three, so to do, which permit shall expire on the last of April annually, and shall limit the quan-