

CHAP. 69. Delaware, though a minor under twenty-one years of age, be and she is hereby fully authorized and empowered by and with the consent and approbation of the other heirs at law of John Biggs, and with their concurrence to unite in the division of the real estate of the said John Biggs, wheresoever situated, and to execute and to acknowledge good and sufficient deed or deeds for the same or any part thereof, so as to pass a perfect and complete title therefor, and to accept and take her separate part of said real estate to be held by her in severalty in the same manner, and with like effect, as if she were over twenty-one years of age, and otherwise competent to convey.

In force. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage.

CHAPTER 69.

Passed June 20, 1861. AN ACT to amend the seventy-fifth Article of the Code of Public General Laws concerning Pleadings, Practice and Process by adding thereto the following sections relating to the service of civil process.

Article amended. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the seventy-fifth Article of the Code of Public General Laws be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sections, viz:

Writ of process. SEC. 1. In all cases of civil process at law or in equity, or of any civil writ whatsoever, hereafter to be issued out of any Court, or by any Judge of this State, and directed to or against, or lawfully to be served upon any person whatsoever, wherein the service of such writ or process upon such person then being within the local jurisdiction of such court or judge, shall be prevented or resisted by threats, violence, intimidation or superior force on the part or behalf of such person; or the said per-