THE SUNDAY SCHOOL, TRACT,
 AND
EVANGELICAL BOOK DEPOSITORY,
No. 2 Franklin Buildings, North street,

REV. S. GUTEAU, Secretary.

This Establishment is the Depository of the Maryland Branch of the American Tract Society, and of the Maryland Sunday School Union.

The Publications of these Institutions are furnished at the same prices as at the Depositories of the Parent Societies in New York and Philadelphia. The Presbytery of Baltimore has made it the Depository for the Books of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, as has the Maryland Baptist Association, for the Books of the American Baptist Publication Society.

There are few Establishments in our Country where so great a variety of Books can be found, especially of Books suitable for the young.

J. CATHERS & BROTHER,
BOOKSELEERS AND STATIONERS,

KEEP ALWAYS ON HAND A COLLECTION OF

CURIOUS & RARE ENGLISH & AMERICAN WORKS,

And all the standard and current literature, &c., of both Continents.

Also, full and half bound Receipt, Blank, Memorandum and Pass Books; Letter, Foolscap, Medium, Note and Wrapping Papers; Pens, Ink, Wafers, Sealing Wax, &c. &c.

OVER 1000 VOLUMES SCHOOL BOOKS, AND 1000 LATE NOVELS,

Secondhanded, which we will retail for half the regular prices.

The manner in which we receive our stock, (by Agents established in Philadelphia, New York and Boston.) affords us facilities to purchase and sell our goods much less than is the custom in this City. All orders, either in quantities or by the single copy for LIBRARIES, from any part of the state or country, attended to in our usual quick and careful manner.
