

DR. W. S. LOYE,

Having sold out his entire stock of DRUGS, &c., in Lexington street, begs leave to inform his old customers, friends and the public, that he has opened a new and most splendid store, with an entirely fresh assortment of

DRUGS, MEDICINES,

&c. &c. &c.

AT No. 89 HANOVER STREET,

A FEW DOORS SOUTH OF CAMDEN STREET,

BALTIMORE,

Where he is prepared to put up prescriptions, in every form, at the shortest notice, and warranted to be correct, as well as every other article in the Medicine line. He has also a full assortment of fancy articles, such as

SOAPS, PERFUMERY, BRUSHES, &c.

♣ The attention of the ladies is especially called to this department of his establishment.

 A Night Bell at the store door for the accommodation of the sick.

WM. TREGO & BROTHER,

MANUFACTURERS OF

EPSOM SALTS, COPPERAS, TARTARIC ACID,

BI CHROMATE OF POTASH,

PRUSSIAN POTASH, PRUSSIAN BLUE,

CHROME YELLOW AND GREEN, SPANISH BROWN,

YELLOW OCHRE, IVORY BLACK,

SULP. NITRIC AND MURIATIC ACID, &c.

AND DEALERS IN

PAINTS, OILS, DRUGS,

GLASS, PUTTY, DYE-STUFFS, &c.

Goods warranted and terms the most favorable. Orders solicited.

STORE ON CHEAPSIDE,

FIRST HOUSE FROM PRATT STREET,

BALTIMORE.