

MANUFACTURERS' WAREHOUSE.

WELLS CHASE,
No. 6 South Howard street,
BALTIMORE,
COMMISSION MERCHANT,
AND
DEALER IN WOOL,

Has always on hand a good stock of well selected Cotton and Woollen manufacturers' Findings, and are prepared to furnish to order various kinds of Machinery, or articles now in general use.

Also for sale on consignment, Linseys, Kerseys, Flannels, colored and white Carpet Chain, Cotton Yarn, various Numbers, Lamp Wick, Tie Yarn, Coverlid Yarn, Cotton Bats and Wadding, &c. &c.

I am also Agent for the sale of all kinds of Tinmen's Tools, and Peck's Patent Machines for the Manufacturing of Tin, Brass, and Sheet Iron Ware, Cotton, Worsted and Woollen Knitting Yarns, a large assortment. Sattinet and Linsey Warps, and Lard Oil, always on hand.

WM. H. JOHNSON.

THOMAS FISHER'S
DYEING ESTABLISHMENT,
No. 10 S. CALVERT STREET,
BALTIMORE.

The Proprietor of this Establishment continues as heretofore to DYE all kinds of Silk and Woollen goods to the various colors required, such as HOSIERY, RIBBONS, STRAW AND LEGHORN BONNETS, SHAWLS, and Ladies' and Gentlemen's Wearing APPAREL generally.

Also, Merino and other Shawls neatly cleansed to resemble in appearance those that are new.

N. B. The Subscriber returns thanks for the patronage which he has already received, and solicits a continuance of the same.

All work entrusted to his care done with neatness and despatch.

OAK HALL CHINA STORE,

No. 18 South Calvert street,

WEST SIDE,
BALTIMORE.

CHINA AND GLASS,

By Wholesale or Retail, for cash, or approved paper, as cheap as any other in the United States.

JAMES PAWLEY, Jr.