GEORGE QUIGLEY

Begs leave to inform the CATHOLICS of PITTSBURG and the WESTERN STATES generally, that he has made such arrangements with one of the Eastern Publishers as enable him to offer all the CATHOLIC WORKS issued in this country at Publishers' Prices, wholesale or retail, as soon as they appear.

He deems it unnecessary to dwell on the advantages to be derived from this arrangement, as Clergymen, and others who are in the habit of buying Catholic Books, will readily perceive the great saving in freight and other expenses. Constantly on hand, a large stock of BIBLES.

IN EVERY VARIETY OF

PLAIN & SUPER EXTRA GILT BINDINGS,

Varying in price from $1 to $15,

PRAYER BOOKS,

From 18 $\frac{3}{4}$ cents to \$5,

TOGETHER WITH AN EXTENSIVE ASSORTMENT OF ALL THE

NEW AND CHEAP PUBLICATIONS.

A LARGE STOCK OF

Prayer Beads, Medals, Crucifixes, Pious Engravings, &c.

All of which will be sold at the lowest prices, wholesale or retail.
