

E. W. BRIDING,
SADDLE, TRUNK, HARNESS & COLLAR
MANUFACTURER,

No. 179 W. Pratt Street, between Hanover and Charles Streets.

All articles in his line warranted of the best materials and workmanship, at lowest city prices.

Country Merchants and others are requested to send their orders, or call and examine for themselves, and they will be pleased with their bargains.

➔ Please notice the number, 179, and the sign of a Gilt Saddle.

ROBERT LAWSON, JR.

No. 42 South Street, opposite Exchange Place,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL MANUFACTURER OF

SADDLES, BRIDLES, HARNESS,
TRUNKS, CARPET BAGS AND VALISES,
AND ALL ARTICLES CONNECTED WITH THE BUSINESS.

RICHARD LILLY,
SADDLER & HARNESS

MANUFACTURER,

7 CALVERT ST., BALTIMORE.

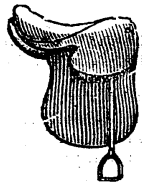

Horse Clothing of all patterns; London Whips,
Bits, Spurs, and London Saddle Trees.

Horses measured and neatly fitted. Traveling
Trunks and Portmanteaus.

FIREMEN'S HATS MANUFACTURED

THOMAS ARMSTRONG, SADDLER AND HARNESS MAKER,

No. 11 N. LIBERTY STREET, BALTIMORE.

JOSEPH D. WORLEY,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

SADDLE, HARNESS AND TRUNK MANUFACTURER,

No. 334 BALTIMORE STREET,

OPPOSITE THE GLOBE INN, BALTIMORE,

Manufactures and keeps constantly on hand every description of Harness, Trunks, Valises, Carpet Bags, and every article in his line. Orders executed with neatness and dispatch.