

the books in person or by power of attorney, but no stockholder indebted to the company shall be permitted to transfer his or their stock or to receive any dividend until such debt is paid or secured to the satisfaction of the President and Board of Directors.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to confer banking privileges in said company to issue any note, token, scrip, device or other evidence of debt to be used as currency. Banking privileges prohibited.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of the passage, continue and be in force until the year eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and until the end of the session of the General Assembly next thereafter. To take effect.

---

CHAPTER 83.

AN ACT to incorporate the Corn and Flour Exchange of the City of Baltimore. Passed March 23, 1865.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Chestnut, Thomas Whitridge, Joseph O. Ford, Francis White, Robert Tyson, George Small, James A. Hooper, B. F. Phillips, Luther J. Cox, Jr., P. H. Macgill, Samuel Duer, J. B. Clark, M. Roberts, John G. Heives and C. W. Slagle, their associates and successors, be and they are hereby created a corporation and body politic, in the city of Baltimore, by the name and style of the Corn and Flour Exchange of the City of Baltimore; their object and intention being to establish a depot or mart for the sale or purchase of grain, flour, provisions and produce, generally, where all persons who are subscribers or stockholders as hereinafter mentioned, desiring, can sell or purchase the same, and also, to have a reading room attached, where there shall be constantly kept a regular list of the price cur- Incorporated powers and privileges.