

City Council of Baltimore, signify in writing such intentions, and thereupon a special license may and shall be granted to such proprietors, by the Comptroller, or other proper officer of said city; and for every special license thus granted, there shall be paid such sum as is now or shall hereafter become payable for other hackney carriages by the present or future ordinances of said city.

145. No hackney carriages which shall be thus specially licensed shall make use of or go upon, or stand or wait for employment at any of the public stands designated by or under the present or any future ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, or at any other place, or places in said city, except the premises of the owner thereof, under a penalty of twenty dollars for every such offence, one half to be paid to the informer, to be recovered against either the owner or driver thereof, as fines of a like amount are now recorded. Penalty.

146. Each and every proprietor of hackney carriages, shall at the time when he applies for a special license, or any renewal thereof, furnish the Comptroller or other proper officer of the city of Baltimore with a correct statement of the number of hackney carriages used by him and such owner, whenever he shall have increased the number of such hackney carriages, shall report such increase to the Comptroller, or other proper officer of said city, and every person violating any one of the provisions of this section, shall forfeit his license, and be liable to a penalty of ten dollars. Correct statement to be furnished.

147. The fines and penalties imposed by these additional sections shall be recovered and collected in the same manner as other fines and penalties of a like amount are now recovered and collected, and shall be paid over to the same parties, for the same purposes, as is provided for in section one hundred and forty-eight of this Article. Fines—how collected.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage. In force.
