

Empowered to levy and collect taxes.

Sec. 1. The Mayor and City Council of Baltimore are hereby empowered to levy and collect taxes upon every description of property found within the corporate limits of said city, which they are now authorized by law to levy taxes upon for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the municipal government, whether the owners thereof reside within or without the limits of said corporation; provided, that no stocks, bonds, mortgages, certificates or other evidences of indebtedness of any bank or other corporation situated within the limits of said city, which are owned or held by persons residing without such limits, shall be subject to taxation for the purpose above set forth; and, provided further, that no authority is given by this act to impose taxes on any property which is now or may hereafter be exempted from taxation by any general or special act of the General Assembly of Maryland, nor upon any property which may be stored or deposited in the city of Baltimore for temporary purposes.

Provisos.

In force.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage.

CHAPTER 120.

Passed March 18, 1866.

AN ACT to repeal Article eighty of the Code of Public General Laws entitled, "State Reporter," and the several sections thereof, and re-enacting said Article and sections with amendments.

Repealed and re-enacted.

SECTION. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Article eighty of the Code of Public General Laws entitled, "State Reporter," and sections one, two, three, four, five and six of said Article, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments in the following terms.