

Sec. 2. The State Reporter shall be appointed by the Judges of the Court of Appeals, and shall hold his office for the term of four years, unless sooner removed by said Judges, and shall be styled the "State Reporter," and shall be re-eligible from time to time.

Sec. 3. He shall receive an annual salary of five hundred dollars.

Sec. 4. He shall report all cases argued and determined in the Court of Appeals, designated by the court as proper for publication, as soon as possible after the close of each term of said court, the report in each case to be limited to a statement of the material facts, the principal points, and the authorities relied on by the respective counsel, and the opinion of the court delivered therein.

Sec. 5. Each volume of the reports shall contain at least six hundred pages, and shall be printed on good paper, to be selected and purchased by the Reporter at the cost of the State, with clear type, and in size, form, quality of materials and quantity of matter per page, shall correspond as nearly as possibly with the eighteenth volume of Maryland Reports, and shall be sold at a price not exceeding five dollars a volume, bound in "fine law sheep," or four dollars and a half when not bound, and shall be printed, published and bound at the expense of the Reporter, who shall be entitled to the copyright of the volumes.

Sec. 6. The State shall take two hundred copies of each volume of said reports bound in "fine law calf," at the price of six dollars per volume, delivered at the State Library.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from after the first Monday of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-five.
