

CHAPTER 121.

Passed March 22, 1865.

AN ACT appointing Commissioners for the construction of a causeway connecting the bridge over the Patuxent river, near the village of Queen Anne, in Prince George's county, with the main or firm land in Anne Arundel county.

Causeway to be built.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Richard Wootton, of Prince George's county; and D. McCullough Brogden, of Anne Arundel county, be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners with power and authority to have a causeway constructed, connecting the bridge over the Patuxent river, near the village of Queen Anne, in Prince George's county, to the main or firm land in Anne Arundel county, opposite the said bridge; the Commissioners shall, after three weeks notice in the newspapers published in each of said counties, contract with the lowest responsible bidder for furnishing the materials and doing the work necessary in the building of said causeway.

Expense—how paid.

Sec. 2. Be it enacted, That the expense of building said causeway shall be jointly paid by the said counties, and the County Commissioners of each county are hereby directed and required, at their next annual assessment or levy laying term, to levy the sum of money, not exceeding the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars, to pay for the same, and the said Commissioners shall be paid such sum as the County Commissioners of the respective counties shall deem just and reasonable to compensate them for services rendered under this act.

In force.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
