

CHAPTER 154.

AN ACT to provide for the transfer and conveyance of the property of the Elysville Manufacturing Company, a corporation created by the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter thirty-two. Passed March 24, 1865.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be lawful for the stockholders of the Elysville Manufacturing Company, and the legal representatives of any corporators or deceased stockholders to unite in a deed to convey any real estate or other property owned or held by said corporation, and a deed executed in accordance with the laws of Maryland by such corporators and stockholders, or their legal representatives, shall be good and effective to convey such real estate or other property, and to give a valid and legal title thereto as a deed duly executed by the officers of said corporation and attested by their corporate seal, would at any time have been. May unite in a deed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be competent for any court of equity to receive and entertain any bill, and to pass any order or decree which may be just and right in the premises and which may be found necessary or desirable to give effect to the foregoing provision and to confer a good and valid title upon any purchaser of any of the real estate or other property heretofore at any time owned or held by the said Elysville Manufacturing Company, and which has been or at any time hereafter shall be conveyed by said corporation or by the stockholders or legal representatives of stockholders in said corporation. Shall be competent for court to pass decree.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.
