

CHAPTER VI.—PUPILS.

SECTION 1. All white youth between the ages of Age of pupils. six and nineteen years, are entitled to free instruction in any of the public schools of the State, the studies of which they may be able to pursue; provided, that whenever there are graded schools Proviso. the District Commissioner shall determine to which school each pupil shall be admitted.

Sec. 2. Pupils guilty of disorderly or immoral Pupils may be expelled. conduct, who after admonition refuse to reform, shall be suspended or expelled from the school by the Teacher, and his case referred to the Commissioner.

Sec. 3. Children living remote from the public May attend nearest school. school of the school district in which they reside, may attend the school in an adjoining district, under such directions as the Commissioner may prescribe.

Sec. 4. No child shall be admitted to any public Vaccination. school who shall not produce a certificate from a regular physician, that he or she has been properly vaccinated.

CHAPTER VII.—TEXT BOOKS.

SECTION 1. To secure harmony in the system of Uniform series of text books. public instruction, and to enable children moving from one county to another, to pursue their studies without interruption or unnecessary expense to parents or guardians, and also to prepare advanced pupils, uniformly for the higher grades of instruction in high schools and colleges, there shall be a uniform series of text books used in all the schools of the State, organized under this law.

Sec. 2. The uniform series of text books shall By whom selected. be prescribed by the State Board of Education, and may be contracted for by them as hereinbefore provided for, and shall be distributed by the State Superintendent to the Boards of School Commissioners, in quantities and at times as advised by them.