

To be visited and examined.

Sec. 7. Each high school shall be visited and examined annually by the State Superintendent or a Professor of the State Normal School appointed by him; they shall also be visited, at least once each school term, by the President of the Board of School Commissioners, who shall report quarterly to the Board the result of his observations, making such suggestions as he may think will improve the efficiency of the instruction and increase the benefits which the school is designed to confer, all of which shall be included in his Annual Report to the State Superintendent.

To report.

Sec. 8. The Principal of each high school shall report annually to the Board of School Commissioners.

Military drill.

Sec. 9. In every high school of the State, and, if practicable, in each college, military tactics shall form a department of instruction, and the General Assembly, from time to time, shall afford all possible facilities to foster and render efficient military instruction.

CHAPTER IX.—COLLEGES.

Annual donations continued.

SECTION 1. The annual donations to St. John's College, Annapolis; Washington College, Chestertown; the Agricultural College, in Prince George's county, and the Baltimore Female College, are continued until otherwise ordered by the General Assembly, subject to the condition that they shall afford tuition in all the branches taught, and use of books free of charge, to one student for every hundred dollars that such college receives from the State; in accordance with which requirements the further sum of seven hundred dollars, in addition to the present donation, shall, on warrant of the Comptroller of the State, be annually paid on the first day of April of each year, to the President of the Board of Trustees of the Baltimore Female College, for the support of said Institution; the above colleges shall report annually to the State Superintendent, in such form as may be ordered by the Board of Education, and comply with all the other requirements of Article eighty-four of the Code, entitled, "Schools, and of their respective Charters."
