

Sums appropriated.

Blind, in addition to the fund already accumulated for that purpose, five thousand dollars; for the expense of advertising list of Foreign Insurance Agents, one hundred dollars; for the expense of fuel and lights for Public Buildings and the Government House, three thousand dollars; for the contingent fund of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, one thousand dollars; for the erection of water closets for use of the Treasury Department, one thousand dollars, to be expended under the direction of the Treasurer and Comptroller; for the salary of the State Vaccine Agent, six hundred dollars; to Richard King, State Military Relief Agent, for expenses incurred by him in obtaining the soldiers' vote at the elections in October and November, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, two hundred and thirteen dollars and thirty cents; for the purchase of stationery for the present session of the General Assembly, six thousand five hundred dollars additional; to the night Watchmen of Public Buildings, one hundred and eighty dollars each, three hundred and sixty dollars; to the person employed to take charge of Public Buildings and grounds, one hundred and eighty dollars; to the keeper of the Steam House and Record Office furnace, one hundred and eighty dollars, and to his assistant, one hundred and eighty dollars; for filing and recording the Laws and Resolutions of the present session, three hundred and fifty dollars; for stationery for Departments, five hundred dollars; to Thomas E. Dell for two hundred and fifty copies of the second volume of the Supplemental Code, purchased by order of the General Assembly, one thousand dollars; for binding the Laws, Journals and Documents of the present session, two thousand dollars; for indexing the Laws, Journals and Documents of the present session, eight hundred dollars; to pay for the State's subscription to Cohen & Lee's Digest of the Decisions of the Court of Appeals of this State, three thousand dollars; to pay for the State's subscription to J. J. Alexander's collection of English Statutes, two thousand dollars; to pay for the State's subscription Mayer's Digest, twelve hundred and fifty dollars; to pay the members of the Legislature, their officers and attendants, (the yearly salaries