

ticle, shall be divided as herein provided for, the division of the proceeds of the property condemned and sold under the provisions of this Article.

Penalty for resisting officer, &c.

18. That any person resisting an officer in making any arrest or seizure, or resisting any one authorized by this Article to make such arrest shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail, not less than one month, nor more than one year.

Restrictions in taking oysters.

19. That no person shall catch or take oysters within any creek, river, strait, bay or sound, within the limits of any county of this State, with tongs, rakes or any instrument whatever, unless the person so catching or taking the same, shall be at the time thereof a bona fide resident of the county in which such creek, river, strait, bay or sound lies, and in case a creek or river shall be a division line between two or more counties, then no person shall catch or take oysters therefrom as aforesaid, unless the person so catching or taking the same shall be at the time thereof a bona fide resident of one of the counties so divided, nor shall any person take or catch oysters as aforesaid, in any of the waters of this State, not forming a divisional line as aforesaid, in water not less than fifteen feet deep, unless the person so taking or catching the same, shall be at the time thereof a resident of the county bordering on such water.

Violation of preceding section.

20. That any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section, shall be proceeded against in the same manner by the seizure of property and arrest of persons, as herein provided in case of violation of other sections of this Article, and shall be liable to the same forfeiture and penalties.

Appeals.

21. That any person against whom a Justice of the Peace may render a judgment under this Article, either to pay a penalty or of condemnation of property, may appeal from such judgment in the same manner as if the judgment were for a common debt, but no execution or sale shall be stayed unless the party appealing shall give bond to the State of Maryland in double the value of the property condemned, or of the fine imposed,