

for every score of cattle, twenty cents; for every horse and his rider, or led horse, five cents; for every sulky, chaise or sleigh drawn with one horse, ten cents; for every sulky, chaise, coach or sleigh drawn by two horses, twenty cents; and for either of the carriages last mentioned with four horses, forty cents; the like sums according to the number drawing the same; for every cart or wagon whose wheels do not measure over three inches in breadth, ten cents; the like sums according to the number of horses drawing the same; for every cart or wagon, whose wheels measure over three inches and do not measure four inches in breadth, drawn by one horse, eight cents; and eight cents for each additional horse; and for every cart or wagon whose wheels measure four inches in breadth, drawn by one horse, six and one-fourth cents; and six and one-fourth of cents for each additional horse; and the said company shall be permitted to charge the following rates of toll at gate north of Leitersburgh on said road, for every score of sheep, five cents; for every score of hogs, five cents; for every score of cattle, ten cent; for every horse and his rider or led horse, three cents; for each sulky, chaise, carriage or sleigh drawn by one horse, three cents; and three cents for every additional horse attached to such sulky, chaise or carriage; for wagons, carts whose wheels in breadth do not measure over three inches in breadth, drawn by one horse, five cents; and five cents for each additional horse attached to such wagon or cart; and for every such wagon or cart whose wheels in breadth measure over three inches and do not measure four, four cents; and four cents for each additional horse attached to such wagon or cart; and for every wagon or cart whose wheels in breadth measure four inches drawn by one horse, three cents; and three cents for each additional horse attached to such wagon or cart.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That all laws Repealed. inconsistent with or providing for a different rate of tolls or charges, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That this In force. act shall take effect from the date of its passage.