

Meetings.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors may call a general meeting of the stockholders for any purpose relative to the affairs of the company, giving at least fifteen days notice thereof in two daily newspapers of the city of Baltimore, and any number of stockholders, not less than fifty, holding together not less than five hundred shares of the company, may at any time apply to the President and Directors to call a general meeting of the stockholders for any purpose relative to the affairs of the company, and if the President and Directors refuse to call such meeting the number of stockholders proprietors of the said number of shares, shall have power to call a general meeting of the stockholders, giving at least fifteen days notice in said newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, specifying in such notice the object of the meeting.

Banking privileges prohibited.

Sec. 18. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to confer banking privileges on said company to issue any note, token, scrip, device or other evidence of debt to be used as currency.

May accept additional powers.

Sec. 19. And be it enacted, That a majority in amount of the whole number of stockholders may in their discretion, accept and exercise any additional powers and privileges which may at any time be conferred upon this company either by amendments of this act or by any other act hereafter to be passed.

In case of partial destruction—award how to be determined.

Sec. 20. And be it enacted, That in case of a partial destruction by fire, the loss shall be determined by assessors to be appointed as follows: The person whose property is insured shall have the privilege of selecting one disinterested person, and in ten days thereafter the Board of Directors of this company shall select another, and in case of neglect or refusal of said President and Directors to appoint such assessors within thirty days thereafter, then the person whose property has been injured shall be authorized to appoint both assessors; should those two persons disagree in their valuation of a loss they shall select another disinterested person, and the award of a majority shall be final, and the company shall pay the same within ninety days after the date of their award.