

Trustees under the provisions of this section shall be Trustees to all intents and purposes.

Costs of proceedings.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the costs of any proceeding under the last section shall be defrayed by the Trustees against whom the same shall be instituted if they shall be removed, otherwise they shall be defrayed by the corporation, unless the court shall order them to be paid by any person or persons at whose instigation the General Assembly or the Governor may have ordered the proceedings; and if the General Assembly or the Governor shall think fit, they or he may direct the name or names of the person or persons instigating the proceedings to be entered on the records of the court as relators.

In force.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That this act shall continue in force until repealed by the General Assembly; and the General Assembly may at any time repeal, alter or amend this act, and it shall be in force from the day of its passage.

CHAPTER 103.

Passed Feb. 26, 1864. AN ACT for the protection of Fish in all the creeks and streams of water, and their tributaries, in Allegany county, west of Savage mountain.

Protection of Fish.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person or persons, throwing, putting or placing lime or any other poisonous substances, or hauling or fishing with seine or net, in any of the creeks or streams of water, or any of their tributaries, west of Savage mountain, in Allegany county, for the purpose of catching, taking, or destroying fish in any of the said creeks, streams of water and their tributaries, in said county, west of Savage mountain, shall for every such offence, upon conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace of said county, be fined in a sum not less
