

CHAPTER 114.

Passed March 3, 1864. AN ACT for the relief of Robert Welch, of Ben., formerly Sheriff of Anne Arundel county.

Preamble. WHEREAS, The accounts of Robert Welch, of Ben., formerly Sheriff of Anne Arundel county, are now unsettled on the books of the Treasury Department, and an action has been instituted in the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county against the said Welch and the sureties to his official bond, for the recovery of the sum of money which is shown by the books of the Treasury Department to be due from the said Welch to the State of Maryland; and whereas, it has been made to appear that the accounts between the said Welch and the State of Maryland were long since adjusted, and by act of the General Assembly passed at January session eighteen hundred and fifty-four, chapter two hundred and forty-eight, an appropriation was made for the re-payment to the said Welch of the excess of his payment into the Treasury over and above the amount of his liabilities to the State; now therefore,

Discontinued. Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That the action be and the same is hereby ordered to be discontinued, and that the Comptroller and the Treasurer be and they are hereby directed to make such entries in the books of account of their respective offices as will show the adjustment and satisfaction of the balance now shown by the said books to be due from the said Welch to the State of Maryland.
