

place on their said — or vessels a tariff or list of such charges.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the said company shall have true and trusty agents, captains and servants, and that all grain, marketing or other articles of merchandise, and for every description of property committed to their care the company shall hold themselves liable—the dangers of the sea and fire alone excepted.

Liability.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the rights of any person or persons to an action against said company, their agents, workmen or servants, for any damage done to his, her or their property or persons.

Conditions.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors of the said company shall cause a report to be made annually (or semi-annually if they shall deem it expedient) to the stockholders of said company, showing the amount expended by said company in the purchase or construction or chartering of boats, or in the purchasing, leasing, erecting or construction and repairing of boats, vessels, wharves, warehouses or other houses or structures, the amount of passage and other monies, freights and all other monies received, and the amount of expenses incurred; during the same period exhibiting a full and fair account of debit and credit; and that the said President and Directors shall annually or otherwise, at such times and places as the by-laws of said company shall direct, make and declare a dividend of the nett profits of said —, and cause the same to be paid over to the parties or persons respectively entitled.

Duty of President and Directors.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors shall, as soon as practicable after the organization of the said company, pay to the said Commissioners a per-diem allowance for the time they may be engaged in the duties required by this act, of three dollars for every day, and shall also provide and pay for all printed notices in newspapers, all other necessary expenses that may be incurred by said Commissioners.

Commissioners to receive salary.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to authorize the said

Restricted.