

stances, and in carrying out any special plans in connection with St. John's Methodist Protestant Church, or otherwise, which they may devise; in short, the net income shall be consecrated by the said corporation in the sound, untrammelled judgment and discretion of the managers, and in conformity to the constitution and by-laws, they may adopt, to the furtherance of the cause of Christ and of Christian philanthropy on the earth, after the mode which in their judgment would be adopted amid the varying circumstances of actual life by an opulent Christian with a liberal heart and a Catholic spirit, who appreciated the luxury of doing good, yet recognized the duty of a discreet beneficence.

Rights reserved.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That full right is at all times reserved to the General Assembly to alter, amend or repeal this act, and also at any time to require the said corporation to report to the Legislature the amount of its funds and the mode of their investment and expenditure.

Banking privileges prohibited.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That this corporation shall not be authorized to exercise banking privileges, or to issue any note, token, device, scrip or other evidence of debt, to be used as a currency.

In force.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the day of its passage.