are hereby created a body politic and corporate by the name, style and title of the Westminster Cemetery Company, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall be able and liable to sue and be sued before any Justice of the Peace, and in court of law or equity in this State, and may have and use a common seal, and the same at their pleasure to alter or renew; and shall have power to purchase and hold, and enjoy to them and their successors, free from public taxation, any real estate in said county not exceeding twenty-five acres, for the purpose of establishing, ornamenting and maintaining a public cemetery, with authority to said corporation to receive gifts or bequests for the purpose of improving or ornamenting said cemetery, and to hold such personal property as may be necessary to carry out such object, and also to sell or lease and convey any portion of said real estate not wanted for cemetery purposes.

Management, &c.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the affairs and business of said corporation shall be conducted by a President and six Managers, to be elected annually by a majority in interest of the stockholders of said corporation, or of the lot-holders in said cemetery, or both, as the case may be, who shall vote at any election, each stockholder having one vote for each share of stock, and each lot-holder having one vote for each burial lot, held in said cemetery; and said President and Managers so elected shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors are elected; and they, or a majority of them, shall have power to fill all vacancies which may occur in their body until the next election, whether the same be occasioned by death, resignation, refusal or neglect, for three months, to act, or otherwise; to prescribe the time, place and manner of holding all subsequent elections of said officers; to appoint all necessary under officers and agents of said corporation, prescribe their several duties, fix their compensation and provide for their payment; to call for and collect instalments of stock; to make and pay dividends on the stock of said corporation, and to make all by-laws, rules and regulations they may deem proper, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State, for conducting the affairs of said corporation, for the government of the lot-holders