CHAPTER 203.

Passed Mar. 4, 1864. AN ACT to authorize the Trustees of Primary School District number fifty-nine, of Frederick county, to hold certain real estate heretofore conveyed by Cordelia H. Downey for the use of a Public School, &c.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Cordelia H. Dorsey, formerly Cordelia H. Downey, and the Trustees of Central School of Frederick county, have by their petition prayed the General Assembly of Maryland to pass an act vesting in the Trustees of Primary School District number fifty-nine, in Frederick county, the title to so much of the lot of land heretofore deeded by Cordelia H. Downey, (for a public school and place of religious worship, and held and used by the Trustees of Central School of Frederick county for such purposes,) as was occupied by the former school house, together with the right of way thereto, and the right to use the water from the spring belonging to the lands now held by the Trustees of Central School of Frederick county; therefore,

Vested in fee simple.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the title to the land upon which the former school house was built, together with the right of way thereto from the public road heretofore deeded by Cordelia H. Downey, and also the right to use water from the spring on the land now held by the Trustees of Central School of Frederick county, be and the same is hereby vested in fee simple in the Trustees of Primary School District number fifty-nine, of Frederick
