

CHAPTER 206.

AN ACT to prohibit the granting of Licenses for the sale of Spirituous or Fermented Liquors or Lager Beer at or near Woodbury Factory, in Baltimore county. Passed Mar. 7, 1864.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That hereafter it shall not be lawful for the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore county to issue license to any person or persons to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer at Woodbury Factory, or at any place nearer than three-fourths of a mile in every other direction.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 207.

AN ACT supplement to an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland entitled an act to authorize the persons therein named to build a Methodist meeting-house on the public grounds in Chestertown in Kent county, passed at November session of eighteen hundred and one. Passed March 7, 1864.

WHEREAS, It has been represented to this General Assembly that the Commissioners appointed by the Act of Assembly at November session of eighteen hundred and one, to authorize certain persons therein named to build a Methodist meeting-house on the public ground in Chestertown, Kent county, in pursuance of authority therein contained, laid off a lot of ground ninety by fifty feet wide, and the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church named in said act erected a church on part of the ground so laid off; and whereas, the balance of the said lot, measuring fifty by forty-four feet, not occupied by the said church, has Preamble.
