

CHAPTER 226.

Passed Mar. 9, 1864. AN ACT to amend and re-enact section one hundred and forty-six, section one hundred and fifty-two, and section one hundred and sixty of Article eight of the Code of Public Local Laws, entitled, Cecil County, and relating to the village of Port Deposit.

Code amended. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one hundred and forty-six, section one hundred and fifty-two, and section one hundred and sixty of Article eight of the Public Local Laws, entitled, Cecil County, and relating to the village of Port Deposit, be and the same hereby are amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows :

Limits. 146. The limits of said village shall commence on the Susquehanna river at the eastern terminus of the old Port Deposit Bridge, and run thence due east one quarter of a mile, then southerly in a parallel line with river until it strikes a run called Herring Run, then down the said run to the Susquehanna river, and then by and with the river to the place of beginning.

Power to collect taxes. 152. They shall have power to levy and collect taxes in said village, not exceeding in any one year thirty cents in the hundred dollars on the assessable property of said village ; and shall, also, for the purpose of grading and paving the streets of said village, have power to levy such other taxes upon the property fronting on the street, or the portion thereof to be paved, as will pay the cost of grading and paving the same.

Powers. 160. The President and Commissioners of the village of Port Deposit shall have full power to pave the streets of said village, and shall assess and levy the expense thereof upon the owners of the property fronting on that portion of the street to be paved, ratably according to the number of front feet they may respectively own on such portion to be paved as aforesaid.