

CHAPTER 290.

AN ACT to authorize the County Commissioners for Somerset county to levy a sum of money to indemnify Samuel Street, of said county, for the amount which he may pay in consequence of a judgment recovered against him and others in the Circuit Court for Somerset county, by Henry A. White, of said county.

Passed Mar.
4, 1864.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners for Somerset county be and they are hereby authorized to inquire into the facts involved in the case tried in the Circuit Court for said county, at the October term thereof, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-three, in which Henry A. White was plaintiff, and Samuel Street and others were defendants, in which a verdict was rendered in favor of said plaintiff against the said defendants, on which verdict a judgment was rendered at the January term of said court, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-four; and if on said inquiry the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that the said judgment was in consequence of any act done, or order made by the said Street, in the honest and faithful effort to discharge his duty as one of the Constables of said county, in the attempted arrest of a supposed criminal offender, that the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, be and they are hereby authorized to levy upon the assessable property of said county a sum to be collected and paid to the said Street, sufficient to indemnify him for the amount which he shall satisfy the said Commissioners he may actually have paid in satisfaction of said judgment.
