

CHAPTER 307.

Passed Mar. 8, 1864. AN ACT granting certain privileges to the "Fells Point Bank of Baltimore," incorporated by an act of the Legislature of Maryland, passed on the first day of February, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, chapter thirty-four.

Leave of Legislature granted.

SECTION. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the leave, permission and consent of the State of Maryland be, and the same is hereby given and granted to the President and Directors of the "Fells Point Bank of Baltimore," by and with the written advice and consent of the owners of two thirds of the capital stock of said Bank, to take a charter and become a corporate body, according to the provisions of the sixty-first section, and other sections of the act of the Congress of the United States of America, entitled "an act to provide a national currency, secured by a pledge of United States stocks, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," under any corporate name which it may take, under the provisions of said act of Congress, and be accepted by the Treasury Department of the United States of America, and that such corporate body, when formed, as aforesaid, shall be entitled to all the assets of, and be subject to all the responsibilities then existing, of the said "Fells Point Bank of Baltimore."

Consent to be transmitted to the clerk of court of Appeals.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said written advice and consent of the owner of two thirds of the capital stock of said Bank, shall be certified by the President and Cashier, and a majority of the Directors of said Bank under its corporate seal, and to be transmitted to the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and be by him recorded amongst the records of his office, and from and after the same is so transmitted recorded, the charter and all the corporate powers granted to said Banks shall cease.

In force.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the day of its passage.