

Amount paid
for commission

Sec. 7. Be it enacted, That the inspector or corder appointed under the provisions of this act, shall, on the receipt of his commission, pay to the Treasurer of the State the sum of twenty-five dollars, and at the expiration of one year from the date thereof, an additional twenty-five dollars, the failure of payment of which shall be deemed and taken as resignation of the office of inspector, and no person or persons shall act as inspector or corder of fire wood within the limits herein named unless having first complied with the requirements of this act, unless in the absence of and by permission of said inspector.

Inspector to enter upon his duty.

Sec. 8. Be it enacted, That the inspector appointed under the provisions of this act shall enter upon his duty of office on the first Monday of April next ensuing.

In force.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage, so far as may be necessary to carry out effectually its several provisions in relation to the appointment and qualification of the inspector or corder in accordance with this act.

CHAPTER 33.

Passed Feb.
17, 1864.

AN ACT to dismiss the writ of error taken by the State in the case of Myers vs. The State of Pennsylvania, and to pay the counsel employed by the Governor to conduct said case.

Writ of Error dismissed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Governor be and he is hereby authorized and directed to have the writ of error heretofore taken by the State in the case of Myers vs. The State of Pennsylvania, dismissed.

Treasurer directed to pay.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer is hereby directed to pay, on the warrant of the Comptroller, to Jonathan Meredith, Esquire, the