

CHAPTER 310.

Passed March 9, 1864. AN ACT providing for repairs of the State House.

Sum appropriated. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sum of four thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be appropriated for painting the State House, and for altering and furnishing the Adjutant General's room, the same to be done under the direction and supervision of the Adjutant General.

In force. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 311.

Passed Mar. 9, 1864. AN ACT to amend Article twenty-nine of the Public General Laws on the subject of the Courts, by the addition of a section relating to the confession of Judgments.

Additional section. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Article twenty-nine of the Public General Laws on the subject of Courts be, and the same is hereby amended by the addition of the following section to follow the fifteenth section of said article :

Judgments to be considered interlocutory. All judgments confessed on terms to be filed, and all judgments confessed without fixing the amount of the same, and where no cause of action is filed by which said amount may be ascertained, shall be considered interlocutory judgments, and the Court shall on motion of the plaintiff or his attorney at any term subsequent to the entry of any such confession of judgment order an inquisition or cause the judgment to be extended as in other cases of interlocutory judgments, or as upon a judgment by default.