

CHAPTER 378.

AN ACT to provide for the payment of the claims of Peregrine Gorsuch and Francis Gallagher, and representatives of George Sherwood, deceased, Assistant Clerks in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, under the administration thereof by Edward Dowling, late Chief Clerk.

Passed Mar.
8, 1864.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury, be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to examine and adjust the compensation accounts of Peregrine Gorsuch and Francis Gallagher and George W. Sherwood, assistant Clerks, in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, during the administration of the said office by Edward Dowling, late Clerk thereof, and to order and direct the said claims when so adjusted, to be paid by George E. Sangston, late Chief Clerk, or by Alfred Mace, the present Clerk of said Court, out of any surplus funds accrued or accruing in said office, and which would otherwise be payable into the Treasury for the use of the State; provided, that the allowance to the said Peregrine Gorsuch, shall not exceed the sum of eleven hundred and twenty-five dollars; and that the allowance to the said Francis Gallagher, shall not exceed the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars; and provided, the amount paid to the representatives of the said Sherwood, who is now deceased, shall not exceed the sum of six hundred dollars.

Authorized to adjust accounts

Provisos.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act go into effect from the day of the passage thereof.

In force.