

(with the consent of the Bloomingdale Turnpike Company, as hereinafter provided,) said Baltimore and Liberty Turnpike Company is authorized and empowered to use the bed of the said Bloomingdale turnpike road to its other terminus, at the blacksmith shop of John Slack; and the said Baltimore and Liberty Turnpike Company is hereby further authorized and empowered to make a road from the said Bloomingdale turnpike road, at a point at or near the junction of the Windsor Mill road therewith, to the terminus of the said Windsor Mill road, at its intersection with Fremont street, in the city of Baltimore, using the bed of the Windsor Mill road to such extent, and in such parts and places as the said Baltimore and Liberty Turnpike Company may find or deem expedient, but leaving the same whenever utility and convenience may appear to the said company to require; and the said Baltimore and Liberty Turnpike Company is also further authorized, at any time within six years from the passage of this act, to turnpike and use that part of the Liberty road which extends from the Garrison Forest road to the Reisterstown turnpike.

Bloomingdale
Turnpike Company may transfer.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if a majority of the shareholders of the Bloomingdale Turnpike Company, or the President and Managers of said company, and the President and Directors of the Baltimore and Liberty Company so agree, the Bloomingdale Turnpike Company may assign and transfer to the said Baltimore and Liberty Turnpike Company the whole turnpike of the Bloomingdale Turnpike Company, as now located, from the blacksmith shop of John Slack to Wells' Corner, and at the same time release and assign to the said Baltimore and Liberty Turnpike Company all right and control in, to or over said road so transferred, including the privilege of exacting tolls to the said Baltimore and Liberty Turnpike Company, which shall thenceforward hold, use and control the same, as fully and absolutely as any other portion of its turnpike road; and in consideration of such transfer, release and assignment, the said Baltimore and Liberty Turnpike Company may issue such number of shares of the capital stock of the said last mentioned corporation, each share of the value of twenty dollars, as