

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 394.

AN ACT further supplementary to an act, entitled an act, to revive the act to incorporate the Humane Impartial Society of the City of Baltimore, and to change the name of said Corporation, passed January twenty-eight, eighteen hundred and fifty, December session eighteen hundred and forty-nine, chapter thirty-three. Passed March 10, 1864.

WHEREAS, the members of the Corporation, entitled, the President and Managers of the Baltimore Humane Impartial Society and Aged Woman's Home desire, to enlarge the sphere of their benevolent operations in aid of indigent old men by providing a suitable home for them, as well as for indigent old women, and to obtain additional corporate powers and privileges; therefore. Preamble

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That power is hereby expressly given to said corporation to employ and relieve indigent men, and to provide suitable homes for them, as well as for aged women and to maintain and educate orphans, and that such are declared hereby to be the objects and purposes of said corporation. Corporate powers.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall have power to take by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, property, real and personal, additional to that heretofore authorized of the clear annual value of ten thousand dollars, and the same to hold, possess, and enjoy, or to lease, sell, or otherwise, dispose of the same, and that any devise or bequest, to said corporation shall not fail to take effect by reason of the misnomer